Sylvia Lim : Finances After 55: Transition from Earning a Living to Retirement Living (Reference Series)

before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Finances After 55: Transition from Earning a Living to Retirement Living (Reference Series):

2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Extremely basic. By Mike S. If you have never managed your own investments this may be a good very basic start. Even so, you will want/need more than this It is very basic. (Types of investments, buy a less exp house, budget worksheet)

Living off savings is much different than living from paycheck to paycheck. It requires a different kind of budget and a different financial plan. Don't be caught off guard when you make the switch, because financial errors at this time can be costly. Finances After 55 shows you how to get all your personal finance and business matters in order.
