Constantine Samaras, Abigail Haddad, Clifford A. Grammich, Katharine Watkins Webb : Obtaining Life-Cycle Cost-Effective Facilities in the Department of Defense before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Obtaining Life-Cycle Cost-Effective Facilities in the Department of Defense:

The Department of Defense (DoD) constructs, operates, and maintains a large number of facilities. DoD incorporates life-cycle cost-effective practices into many aspects of the military planning and construction processes. This report provides RAND's description and assessment of the process used to obtain life-cycle cost-effective facilities and how that affects DoD construction options and choices.

About the Author Clifford Grammich (The University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois. Doctor of PhD) is a communication analyst at RAND.
